

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1952
PRESENTS
''REFLECTIONS''
OF PALM BEACH HIGH

On the city's western border
Reared against the sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
Dear old Palm Beach High.
Sing her praises, send them upward
Over hill and dale
Here's to thee dear Palm Beach High School
Hail to thee, all hail.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We seniors sadly agree that all good things must come to an end, but ahead of us is the glorious future. As someone once wrote:

"Life is a book of chapters three—
The past, the present, and the yet-to-be.
The past is done and put away,
The present we're living day by day,
And the yet-to-be we cannot see,
For only God holds the key."

Looking back to the day when we, the class of '52, arrived on the hill, we were more than a little apprehensive as we took in our surroundings with our newly acquired sophomore eyes.

Our officers were Carroll Peacock, President; Bill Parham, Vice-President; Arline Atkins, Secretary; and Steve Holzapple, Treasurer. Mrs. Frances Hennessey was our class sponsor. Our sophomore superlatives were Ann Martin, Arline Atkins, Isabel Garrido, Sally Hamner, Bill Parham, Carroll Peacock, Richard Hawthorne, and Steve Holzapple.

The Spelling Contest was won by Pat Vale and Donald Prince. The Sophomore Hop and beach party were the hi-lights of the year and now stand out as brilliant reflections.

We completed our junior year successfully under the careful guidance of our class sponsor, Mrs. Mary M. Hardy, and our fine officers: Richard Hawthorne, President; Jack Hardy, Vice-President; Joan Lund, Secretary; Virginia Real, Treasurer.

Among the extra curricular activities we find our class play, "But Fair Tomorrow," which was a huge success. George Blodgett, Donna Swyers, and Betty Ellis took the leads and they were well supported by the entire cast. Two other memorable occasions were the Junior-Senior Prom and the annual beach party. The prom was held at the George Washington Hotel midst beautiful decorations and gay music. The glorious time still lingers in our memories.

As we continue to reflect, we realize that the class of fifty-two was a busy one.

We were proud to put the newly organized Student Council into effect with the election of officers and homeroom representatives. Those officers elected from the senior class were as follows: Carroll Peacock, President; Sally Hamner, Secretary; Steve Holzapple, Treasurer; and Jesse Little, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Officers elected to lead our senior class were Richard Hawthorne, President; Tommy Stewart, Vice-President; Gladys Lambert, Secretary; and Virginia Real, Treasurer. Mrs. Mary M. Hardy was chosen as our class sponsor to guide us through this whirling year. Voting machines were used for our elections, and we were all pleased with the large turn-out of voters.

Those chosen to represent us in the Hall of Fame were Carroll Peacock and Sally Hamner, Best all Around; Tommy Stewart and Wynne Anne Newton, Most Studious; Steve Holzapple and Gladys Lambert, Friendliest; Dick Hawthorne and Virginia Real, Most Likely to Succeed; C. V. Stephenson and Margaret Archibald, Wittiest; Bill Parham and Arline Atkins, Most Athletic; Mike Hanna and Donna Swyers, Most Talented; and Sheldon Musgrove and June Worley, Most School Spirit.

At last placement exams were safely over, with their share of problems. Our spirits were heightened again by the big event of our senior-skip-day. On the way home full of sand, salt, and food our hearts began to beat a little faster as we realized commencement was almost here. Then, with our diplomas in hand, we knew we had finished our three years at dear old Palm Beach High.

As we all began to leave our friends at the Commencement Dance, we were aware of the fact that some of us would never meet again. On this final year, of gay and memorable times, we shall often reflect. However, as we gaze across the horizon into the future, we know there is much ahead for us. And so, we leave our Alma Mater to walk in the path of life, seeking the spot where we can best serve in the fast moving world of today.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

On a bright September day of 1951 a year ago, we nervously made our debut on the Hill as the Class of '53, At first we were called "silly sophomores" by the experienced upperclassmen, but after we became familiar with school activities, we proved that we were not "silly" at all. We elected a very capable set of class officers. They were Jimmy Booth, President; Malcolm Knowles, Vice-President; Marilyn Hardwick, Secretary; and Ronnie Belk, Treasurer. They helped make our first year at Palm Beach High a great success.

We also had to elect a group of outstanding students to represent our class. We chose as our superlatives: Natalie Baird, Jackie Tarver, Marilyn Hardwick, Ellen Francisco, Jim Fogleman, Jimmy Booth, Ronnie Belk, and Donald Rott. Our sponsor, Mr. Young, helped us over many difficulties.

Joan Gross won the annual Sophomore Spelling Bee and Mickey Winkler was second. Many happy memories linger with us of the wonderful times we had at our beach party and our hop.

When we entered P.B.H.S. as juniors, we began our next phase of higher learning. What a thrill it was to be eligible for the various clubs and staffs. One of our first duties was to elect our class officers and our sponsor. When election day came, we elected these: Bill Flanders, President; Malcolm Knowles, Vice-President; Marilyn Hardwick, Secretary; and Sue Brunson, Treasurer. Mr. William R. Young was elected our sponsor once again. This year we were faced with something new—the Student Council. After much thought on the part of all of us, Ronnie Belk was elected second Vice-President from our class.

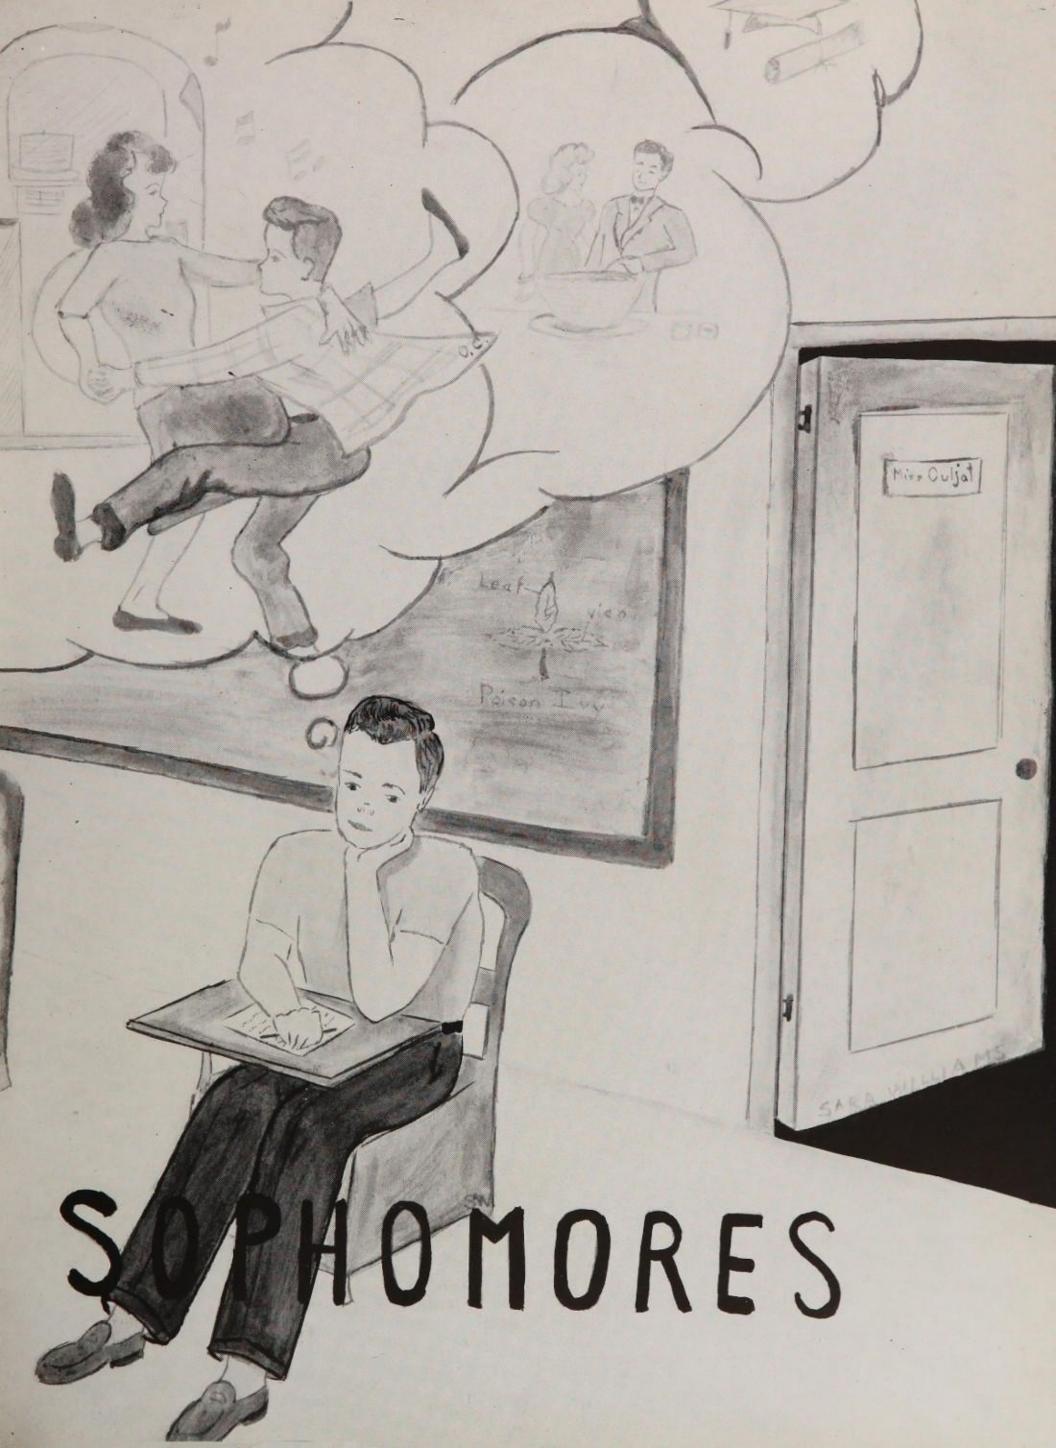

Our next task was to choose our superlatives, the eight "Jolly Juniors." We chose these: Bill Flanders, Marilyn Hardwick, Jim Fogleman, Kathy Newlon, John Casey, Pat Clark, Ronnie Belk, Natalie Baird, Jimmy Booth, Ellen Francisco, Harold Waller, and Marion Ard.

On December 14, we presented our Junior Play, "Crime Photographer." Ronnie Belk, Drue Cox, Bill Meyer, and Meda Grigg, supported by the rest of the cast, gave an excellent performance.

We shall not forget the Junior-Senior Prom, which we gave in honor of the Class of '52. We also enjoyed our Class Picnic at the end of the year.

Now we come to the end of our second year at P.B.H.S. We are sorry we are approaching the last year, yet proud, that we are almost seniors. We shall strive to make the "reflection" of the Class of '53 serve as a guiding light to all classes entering Palm Beach High School in the years to come.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Being the newcomers at Palm Beach High School, we started the sophomore year a little nervously and very much confused. After the usual beginning days of weaving in and out of the "lost and found" department, we finally settled down to work toward a successful sophomore year.

Our first big event was the election of class officers. We elected as president, Edward Messer; vice-president, William Vitulli; secretary, Joan Allen; and treasurer, Donald Haley. We chose Mrs. Savage as our class sponsor.

At the end of the first semester, we selected our eight best all-round sophomores, who were Clara May Dean, Barbara June Moody, Ellen O'Donnell, Mary Alice Sullivan, Ray Anderson, Lynn Fort, Jimmy Hooks, and Norman McKinnon.

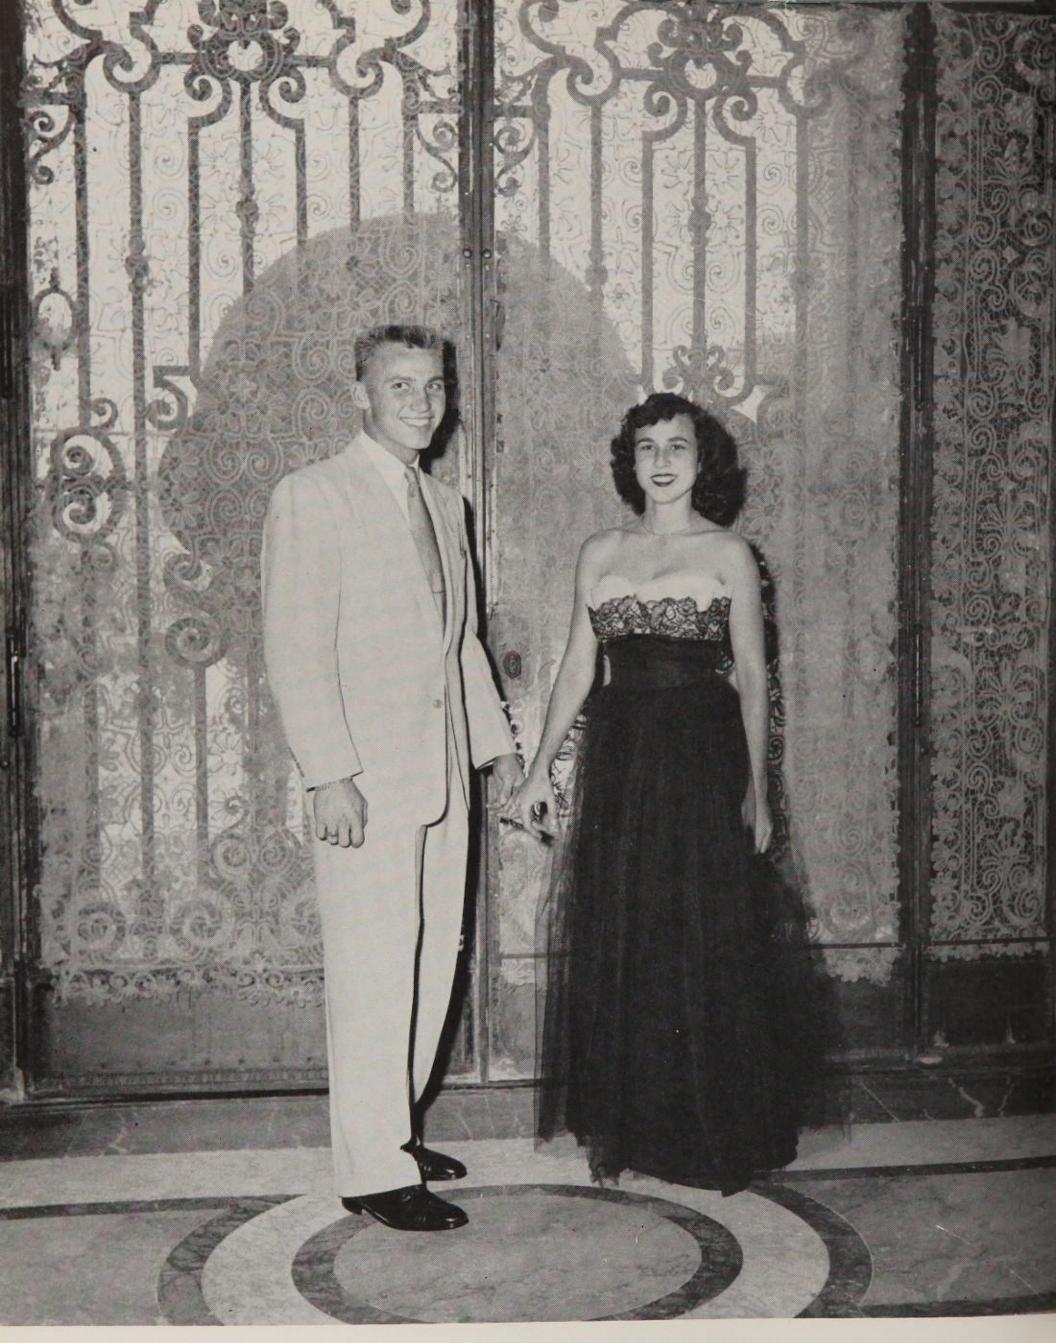

We are very glad to have been represented on the newly elected Student Council. The fourteen sophomores chosen are Joyce Fleenor, Marilyn Martin, Jimmy Adams, Eddie Tisnower, Edward Messer, Yvonne Crosby, Lynn Fort, Charles Sharitz, Sylvia Laudermilk, Ray Anderson, Sheri Williams, Charles Staten, Ruth Jackson, and Ellen O'Donnell. Through these representatives we are able to keep informed of the proceedings of the school.

We enjoyed very much our two social functions of the year—the Sophomore Hop and the annual picnic, and thus we're looking forward to all the good times we'll have together in the coming years.

As we come to the end of the sophomore year, we can truthfully say that it has been a most eventful and happy one, and we are especially grateful to our class sponsor, Mrs. Savage, for her competent assistance and infinite patience with us.

- I, EDNA WILLIAMS, do hereby leave to Suzanne Lynch and Omah MacDonald my ability to concentrate in class (on other things).
- I, SARA WILLIAMS, do hereby leave to Sissy Williams my ability to forget things, and to Jane Raybon my perfect attendance at school.
- I, CAROL WILSON, do hereby will to Patti Watts my nickname, "Caroline," and to Marian Tracy my ability to pass all my subjects.
- I, MARGARET WILSON, not being in sound mind, do hereby bequeath to any junior to be at all of Miss Rowbotham's enjoyable, entertaining tea parties.
- REBECCA WOOD, hereafter resolve to be more diplomatic in my dealings.
- I, JUNE WORLEY, do hereby leave my "sis," Marguerite, my wonderful senior year and to Eileen Seidel and Rachel Winslow my good times at P.B.H.S.
- I, ROBERT J. YOUNG, will to anybody with a car my favorite parking place for my hot-rod.
- I, LUCIUS YOUNG, in a sound state of mind, leave to Ronnie Cagle all my pole vaulting ability.

Telephone

and some of the things they do

Telephone girls enjoy interesting and important jobs in a growing industry.

Operators using modern equipment provide world-wide communication. — Service Representatives handle customer contacts in our business offices.—Stenographers, Typists and Clerical workers perform important and specialized jobs in all departments.

If good pay-friendly associates your own age-paid vacations-sickness benefits and frequently scheduled raises appeal to youwhy not come in and talk with us about a position with the Telephone Company.

Congratulations and Best Wishes . . .
